Illinois Memorial Trophy Winners

The Illinois Memorial Trophy is awarded annually to the "Fencer of the Year" selected from participants in the National Collegiate Championships. The Trophy is awarded on the basis of sportsmanship and conduct on the strip, attitude and dress, and past performances in the Championships and in over-all intercollegiate competition. Three men are nominated in each weapon classification by participants. Final balloting is completed by a special committee composed of fencing coaches. The first award was made in 1951.

1969 Championships

PENNSYLVANIA PARLAYED two first place finishes into the team title in the National Collegiate Championships at North Carolina State University, Mar. 27-29.

James Wetzler took the championship in the epee with a 9-2 record, and teammate Norman Braslow was tops in the saber with an 8-3 record and a victory in a fence-off against Harvard's Lawrence Cetrulo, who had also posted an 8-3 record.

Antony Kestler of Columbia won the foil competition with a 9-2 mark and a victory over Tom Keller of Harvard in a fence-off.

Pennsylvania was runner-up two years ago, but had not won the championship since 1953.

Stan Sieja of Princeton was voted coach of the year by the coaches. Sportsmanship awards were presented to John Nonna of Princeton in the foil, James Davidson of Navy in the epee, and James Carter of Princeton in the saber.
