

COLLEGE FENCERS OPEN TESTS TODAY

Twelve Eastern Institutions to Compete for Titles in Tourney at Penn A. C.

Special to THE NEW YORK TIMES.

PHILADELPHIA, March 30.—Representatives from twelve Eastern colleges are entered in the annual Intercollegiate Fencing Association championship tournament which opens at the Penn A. C. tomorrow morning and comes to a close with the finals on Saturday night.

Swordsmen from the United States military and naval academies, Yale, Harvard, Princeton, Columbia, Cornell, Pennsylvania, New York University, College of the City of New York, Massachusetts Tech and Hamilton are entered. A number of the fencers arrived tonight, including the squads from New York City.

Maurice E. Kaiser of West Point is the only defending champion entered. He hopes to retain the individual saber title.

John Honeycutt of Army, whose father won the intercollegiate foils championship for West Point in 1904; Captain Joseph Ullman of Yale, José De Capriles of New York University, D. C. T. Grubbs Jr. and E. R. Tilburne of Navy, Captain William T. Pecora of Princeton and Maxwell Charat of Penn are among the leading foils entrants.

The pairings announced tonight follow:

Foils Teams—Group 1: Army, C. C. N. Y., Harvard. Group 2: Hamilton, Penn., Yale. Group 3: Columbia, Cornell, Navy. Group 4: Mass. Tech., New York University, Princeton.

Epee Teams—Group 1: C. C. N. Y., Mass. Tech., Yale. Group 2: Navy, Penn., Princeton. Group 3: Army, Cornell, New York University. Group 4: Columbia, Hamilton, Harvard.

Saber Teams—Group 1: Harvard, Navy, Penn. Group 2: Army, Columbia, Mass. Tech. Group 3: Cornell, Princeton, Yale. Group 4: C. C. N. Y., Hamilton, New York University.

The New York Times

Published: March 31, 1933

Copyright © The New York Times