N.Y.U. Wins Intercollegiate 3 - Weapon Fencing Title for Record 18th Time

VICTORY IN SABER CLINCHES CROWN

Violets' Krause Brothers, and Columbia's Soriano Win Individual Titles

Special to The New York Times CAMBRIDGE, Mass., March 14 — New York University's swordsmen methodically plowed their way to the saber team championship today and gave the Violets a record 18th three-weapon title at the 73d annual Intercollegiate Fencing Associa-tion tournament tion tournament.

tion tournament. In yesterday's opening round of the two-day event at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, N. Y. U. captured its 19th foil crown, also a rec-ord, after finishing third to Pennsylvania in the épée. With 20 triumphs in the épée and 26 in the foil, N. Y. U. led the 12-team field into today's final with 46 points, one more than Navy, two over Penn, five over Princeton and seven over Columbia. Observers believed that the

Observers believed that the three-weapon competition would be decided in the last round, but Coach Hugo Castello and his three Violet sabermen thought otherwise. "The team got up early, we were the first ones here, and by 8 A.M. were warming up," said Castello, who is complet-ing his 23d year as coach "So they were ready to go when the competition began at nine. We started fast and kept on going." The Violets won two of three bouts in the first round against Columbia, runner-up in the saber, and swepte Navy, 3-0, in the fourth round. With two triumphs over Army in the ninth round, N.Y.U.

was mathematically assured of the three-weapon crown. The saber championship was decid-ed when Jeff Tishman beat Dave Brody of Penn, 5-2, in the second bout of the 11th and final round

Steve Mones, in pool three, led N.Y.U. with 11 victories to become the only fencer to go undefeated in the team events. Tishman, in pool two, had 10 triumphs and Steve Kaplan, in pool one, had seven to give the saber team 28 points, three more than Columbia.

Thus in the three weapons, N.Y.U. accumulated 74 victories, 10 more than Columbia and Penn, which tied for second. Princeton, last year's champion, was fourth with 61. Undefeated in its dual meets this season, N.Y.U. sent six men into today's individual cham-pionships—Tishman and Mones in-saber: Sal Virgili and Wayne

Krause in epee, and Walter Krause and Ed Ballinger in foil.
N.Y.U.'s Krause brothers and Columbia's Bruce Soriano, all from Newark, won the individual title. Walter, a senior, retained his foil anown. Warma retained his foil crown; Wayne, a junior, took the epee, and Soriano, a sophomore, gained the saber title.
The Violets took possession of the coveted "Little Iron Man," oldest of intercollegiate trophies, for their foil championship, and a cup for their 12th saber title, in addition to the over-all championship trophy of three crossed weapons and a fonging most mounted and a fencing mask mounted on a base.
