
EPEE, FOIL TITLES TAKEN BY N. Y. U.

Five Violets Also Qualify for Individual Championships

Special to The New York Times

WEST POINT, N. Y., March 12—New York University won the team championships in épée and foil today and opened a large lead in its bid for a third Intercollegiate Fencing Association three-weapon crown in the last four years.

The Violets placed two fencers—Wayne Krause and George Szunyogh, the defending champions—in the épée individual championships tomorrow and qualified all three of their foil entries—Marty Lang, Ed Balinger and Pete Gaylor.

Individual championships in the three weapons will follow the team championships in the saber tomorrow.

N. Y. U. had 61 team points after two weapons, followed by Columbia with 49 and Pennsylvania with 47.

Lang was the day's only undefeated fencer, winning all 12 bouts in the team foil.
