Did You Know?

Sabres Mike Sullivan and Ed Baguer and foilist Sara Walsh remain the only ND fencers ever to post 30-plus wins in a season without a loss.

Brian Casas (156-55) ranks fifth on the Notre Dame list for career men's epee wins and earned All-America honors at the 1999 and 2001 NCAAs.

1994 NCAA Champions

Notre Dame claimed the 1994 NCAA Combined Fencing Championship behind a deep lineup that included just three All-Americans, led by sabre captain and All-American Chris Hajnik. Pictured from left are: foil captain Rian Girard (fenced epee in NCAAs), men's head coach Mike DeCicco, Hajnik, epee captain Grzegorz Wozniak, Stanton Brunner, foil captain Dinamarie Garcia and women's head coach Yves Auriol.

The Notre Dame fencing team's quest for the program's sixth national championship – after a decade of near-misses – finally produced the winning point total in 2003, with the Irish fencers outfitted for their national-title rings after the triumphant return from Colorado Springs. Foilist Alicja Kryczalo, who went on to win her second of three NCAA individual titles, fittingly delivered the 5-3 win over Stanford's Iris Zimmerman (pictured) that helped provide the final winning margin over Penn State (182-179). Senior sabres Matt Fabricant and Destanie Milo closed with the best NCAA showing of their careers (both 6th) while five others posted top finishes: epeeists Michal Sobieraj (2nd) and Kerry Walton (5th), and foilists Andrea Ament (3rd), Ozren Debic (4th) and Derek Snyder (5th).
