Quick Facts:

- The 1964 team won the NCAA championship three years after the squad was the national runner-up. It was the last NCAA championship for a Princeton squad until the men's lacrosse team brought home the 1992 title. Six Princeton fencers have won NCAA individual titles: Chambless Johnston '51 (1951, sabre); Henry Kolowrat '54 (1954, epee); Kinmont Hoitsma '56 (1956, epee); Bill Hicks '64 (1964, foil), Harald Winkmann '95 (1994 epee) and Max Pekarev '99 (1996, sabre). In addition, five Princetonians have received the Illinois Memorial Trophy, awarded annually to the "Fencer of the Year" at the NCAA championships: Chambless Johnston '51 (1951), Fleet Johnston '56 (1956), Frank Anger '61 (1961), Bill Hicks '64 (1964) and John Nonna '70 (1969).
- Beginning in 1990, the NCAA Championship was a combined men's and women's event. In 1993, the men's epee and foil squads combined with the women's foil team to lead Princeton to a fifth-place finish, its best in 10 years. In 1994, the men's epee and sabre squads combined with the women's foil to take fourth place at the championships, while the Tigers earned a national championship in epee.
- Stan Sieja, who coached Princeton for 37 seasons, finished his career as the team's most successful mentor. The fencers' home venue in Jadwin Gym is named for the legendary coach.
- Both Henry Kolowrat '54 and Lee Shelley '78 won United States championships in epee.
- Two Princeton fencers won medals in the Olympics. Henry Breckinridge '07 won a bronze in team foil in 1920, and Tracy Jaeckel '28 earned a bronze in team epee in 1932.
- Other Princetonians have competed internationally. Most recently, Dan Nowosielski '90 appeared in the 1992 Summer Olympic Games in Barcelona as a member of the Canadian fencing team, competing in both the foil and epee team events. Shelley represented the United States in team epee. Previous Olympians include Lee Shelley '78, John Nonna '70, Kinmont Hoitsma '56 and Henry Kolowrat '54.
- Harald Winkmann '95 became Princeton's first national champion in fencing since 1964 when he won the 1994 epee title with a 16-15 decision in sudden-death overtime.
- In 1994, Princeton won its first outright Ivy League title ever with a 4-0 record in league matches. The team repeated as the undefeated Ivy champion in 1995, then did it again in 1997.
